

Rhonda Mueller Langdon – Langdon was a Dixon High School girls basketball and softball standout in the late 1970's and a member of the Campbell University Sports Hall of Fame. She led Dixon to the state 2-A basketball semifinals as a senior. At Campbell University, she starred in basketball and softball and was named the University's female athlete of the year three times. At the time of her graduation in 1982, her 1,276 career points ranked second on the school's all-time list, and she was the career rebounding leader. In 1993, she became the first woman inducted into the Campbell Sports Hall of Fame.